Pitch & Putt Club

◉ The Club would like to say a huge thank you to all who supported Castlelyons P&P church-gate collection at Mass in Castlelyons last weekend - a lot of people apologised for giving a little, but be assured a little is a lot to any club's finances in present times.

◉ Prize winners in latest club competition, Bill Holton Shield are local boys - Kevin Cotter overall nett with a score of 124 and St John O'Connor 1st nett 127. Pat Gray wrestled the gross (147) on back 9s from John Sloan 72 vs. 75. Congratulations to all three.

◉ Well done to Con Power who won the hole in one money last Sunday at no.11.

◉ Further news during week with upcoming competition for next weekend

◉ With the good weather forecast for the weekend, we'd love to see lots of people on the course. Green fees are available (Adult €5; juvenile €2.50) and of course new members are always welcome.

◉ Just a reminder to all players, please show respect for all other players and for the course - putters only to be used on greens.

◉ For more updates, please go to our Facebook page (Castlelyons Pitch and Putt)

• Championship on Friday Evening - The intermediate hurling team will play the first round of the Championship on Friday evening. The opposition is Blarney and the venue is Riverstown at 7;30pm. The team has worked hard under the guidance of Justin McCarthy, Kieran McGann and John Barrett. The league campaign has been successful. However this is championship and the stakes are much higher. As in the past we can expect a good turn out of support. The players have put in a huge effort so far. Come along to give the lads encouragement and you will be rewarded with a great evening of hurling.

• Castlelyons GAA Golf Classic - On Friday 25th May at Fermoy Golf Club Castlelyons GAA club held a fund raising golf classic. Weather conditions were excellent.
