Castlelyons Community Council

• "Return to your Home" Festival

The committee has increased in size to cater for the huge workload and the forms are coming back little by little. Many thanks to those of you who have filled out the form and sent in your photo(s). A fascinating picture of the history of our past and present parishioners is beginning to emerge and some beautiful old and new photographs to go with it. At the last meeting the programme for our festival weekend was beginning to take shape and some very nice ideas were discussed. An exhibition of old photos/memorabilia will take place at the Community Centre throughout the festival weekend (Aug. Bank holiday). It is hoped to have an ecumenical service at the Abbey on Friday night before the launch of our historic publication and a "Know your Neighbour" night at the marquee. A "celebrity" talent event on Sat. night as well as a country market event on Sunday. Sunday night will see the ever-popular and local favourites "The Buachaills" take centre stage at the marquee while a family-orientated picnic/barbecue will take place on bank holiday Monday. It is also hoped to have a "Castlelyons in a Day" photo exhibition in the marquee for the weekend. All of the various social and sporting bodies are asked to row in and have various competitions to coincide with the festival and more details will be available shortly on these events as well as many more side-shows.

Next meeting will take place on Wed. next April 17th at 8pm. All distributors as well as committee are asked to attend this meeting.
