● Great win for Castlelyons National School in Sciath Na Scoil Final
In what was a quite week on the playing front for our Juvenile Teams pride of place this week must go to the Castlelyons School Sciath Na Scoil Hurling Team who won a thrilling final last week in Paric Ui Chaoimh. It's been a long time since Castlelyons school participated in the 13 a side grade and after a titanic struggle against Glountane, Castlelyons lads superior hurling skill eventually prevailed in what was a hard fought but extremely sporting encounter. Both teams and their supporters behaved themselves impeccably and gave the large crowd a final to remember. All of the lads on the Castlelyons team play with Castlelyons Juvenile Club. Castlelyons School Principle Neilus De Roiste deserves great credit for guiding his team through the qualifiers and for having them well prepared for the final.
